

CITY OF PASADENA

PROCLAMATION

Whereas people with disabilities are an important, vital part of American society who are valued workers, civic leaders, business owners, veterans, family members, and friends, and they are innovative and valued contributors in the workplace, the classroom, and the community; and

Whereas the Americans with Disabilities Act gives Americans the right to fully participate in all aspects of society; and

Whereas people with disabilities and their family members, employers, educators, and caregivers should be given access to trusted, reliable resources and information so that they may obtain employment, education, transportation, and housing; and

Whereas disability.gov offers comprehensive disability-related resources and information for Americans with disabilities, their family members, veterans, employers, educators, caregivers, and others;

Now, Therefore I, Bill Bogaard, Mayor of the City of Pasadena, on behalf of the City Council, do hereby proclaim the day of October 20, 2009 as and encourage all citizens to recognize the accomplishments and contributions of persons with disabilities throughout our community.
